

St. Mary's Episcopal Church

A parish in the Diocese of Pennsylvania

November 3, 2024 10:00 AM- The Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost
All Saints Sunday

Our Mission: God is calling the people of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Wayne, Pennsylvania to follow Jesus' teaching to love God with all our hearts, souls and minds; and to love our neighbor as ourselves. Therefore we love and embrace each other, friend and stranger alike in worship, service and prayer as we seek to live in and share God's Word.

– Adopted by the St. Mary's Vestry, May 2015

And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." - John 11:40-44

Hymn in Procession 625 Ye holy angels bright

Collect of the Day

Almighty and merciful God, of whose only gift it cometh that thy faithful people do unto thee true and laudable service: Grant, we beseech thee, that we may run without stumbling to obtain thy heavenly promises; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

All may be seated.

First Reading

Isaiah 25:6-9

A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah.

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the Lord for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

- 1 The earth is the LORD's and all that is in it, *
the world and all who dwell there in.
- 2 For it is he who founded it upon the seas *
and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.
- 3 "Who can ascend the hill of the LORD? *
and who can stand in his holy place?"
- 4 "Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, *
who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
nor sworn by what is a fraud.
- 5 They shall receive a blessing from the LORD * and a just reward from the God of their salvation."
- 6 Such is the generation of those who seek him, *
of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
- 7 Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 8 "Who is this King of glory?" *
"The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle."
- 9 Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
- 10 "Who is he, this King of glory?" *
"The LORD of hosts,
he is the King of glory."

Second Reading

Revelation 21:1-6a

A Reading from the book of Revelation.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

“See, the home of God is among mortals.
He will dwell with them as their God;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
he will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.”

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.”

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Those who are able may stand.

All children are welcome at this time to follow the Cross to our Children’s Chapel for Sunday School.

Holy Gospel

John 11:32-44

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Nicene Creed

Those who are able may stand.

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Those who are able may remain standing.

Prayers of the People Form VI

The Leader and People pray responsively

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

For all people in their daily life and work. In this week's Parish Cycle of Prayers we pray for (the congregation reads aloud) Chrissy Creamer, Scott Chapin, Peter Busch and Marylu Hill and their families.

For this community, the nation, and the world.

We pray for all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;

For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy. Remembering especially, Irene Steinhardt, Barbara Kidder, Jennifer Lurie, Victoria Coates, JoAnne Vereneck, Jim Cobb, Scott Ziglar, Craig and Ann Marie Erickson, Marylu Hill and her family, Magali Behrmann, Avanya Manasseh, Wilhelm Rebmann, Tom Ferrara, Timothy O'Donovan, Joan McAndrew, Aldys Davis and Guillaume Brunet.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For our Presiding Bishop Michael, our Presiding Bishop Elect Sean, our Bishop Daniel, our Rector Father Conor; and all bishops and other ministers;

For all who serve God in his Church.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions

Hear us, Lord;

For your mercy is great.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

Silence

The People may add their own thanksgivings

We will exalt you, O God our King;

And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom. We especially remember Clayton (Tony) Wetzel, Jr., Latona, Katharine and Clayton Wetzel, Sr., Pauline, Glenn, Jr. and Glenn Mains, III, Margaret McCarter and Christopher Glenn Ferrara for whom the flowers on the High Altar are given this morning, Paul Zimmer for whom the flowers on the Lady Chapel Altar are given and we also pray for Ann Christian for whom the Sanctuary Light is given.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

Who put their trust in you.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence may be kept.

Those who are able please kneel.

Leader and People

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;

in your compassion forgive us our sins,

known and unknown,

things done and left undone;

and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant concludes with an absolution or a suitable Collect.

The Peace

Those who are able may stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Announcements

The Holy Communion

The people may remain seated.

Offertory Hymn 287 For all the saints, who from their labors rest

Sine Nomine

Those who are able may stand

The people stand or kneel as they are able.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or to lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

A-men.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Agnus Dei

R. Powell

The Celebrant says

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Communion Motet Justorum animae "The souls of the just"

Antonio Salieri

Justorum animae in manu Dei sunt, et non tanget illos tormentum mortis.
Visi sunt oculis insipientium mori,
illi autem sunt in pace.

The souls of the just are in the hand of God,
and the torment of death shall not touch them.
In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die;
but they are in peace. (Wisdom 3)

Communion Hymn 656 Blest are the pure in heart

Franconia

Healing prayers are offered in the Lady Chapel for anyone who desires them.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A prayer for those observing birthdays

Watch over your children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A prayer for those observing anniversaries

O God, you have so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church; Send your blessing upon these persons who come to renew their promises to each other, and grant them in your grace, that they may so love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their lives together may be a witness to your love and forgiveness, and that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

All Children are welcome to join Father Conor for the final procession.

Parish Cycle of Prayers

In this week's Parish Cycle of Prayers we pray for Chrissy Creamer, Scott Chapin, Peter Busch and Marylu Hill and their families.

The flowers on the High Altar this morning are given by the Wetzel family to the glory of God and in loving memory of Clayton (Tony) Wetzel, Jr., Latona, Katharine and Clayton Wetzel, Sr., Pauline, Glenn, Jr. and Glenn Mains, III, Margaret McCarter and Christopher Glenn Ferrara.

The Lady Chapel altar flowers are given to the glory of God and in lasting memory of Paul Zimmer, the beloved husband of Barbara and the father of Nicole and Collette.

The Sanctuary Light is given in loving memory of a dear friend, Ann Christian, from Sharon, Barbara and the Pecko Family.

Please pray for those in ongoing need of our prayers and all on our parish intercession list at St. Mary's: Irene Steinhardt, Barbara Kidder, Jennifer Lurie, Victoria Coates, JoAnne Vereneck, Jim Cobb, Scott Ziglar, Craig and Ann Marie Erickson, MaryLu Hill and her family, Magali Behrmann, Avanya Manasseh, Wilhelm Rebmann, Tom Ferrara Timothy O'Donovan, Joan McAndrew, Aldys Davis and Guillaume Brunet.

Also included on the prayer list are our friends John Paul, Peggy Wilson, Emma Cavanaugh-Kerr, Stan Compton, Arlene, Father Hentzi Elek, Carole Beideman, Mike Mattingly, Doug Drumheller, as well as Dana, Fionn, Miriam, Kris, Jill, Kendall, Ferne Knauss and Kevin Dry.

The names read aloud today include St. Mary's parishioners and family members of parishioners. Please say aloud the names of your loved ones during the Prayers of the People when the lector pauses for the congregation to add their own petitions. Please note: Kindly let our Parish Administrator Nicole Marie know if you would like yourself or another prayed for at our services. It is our practice to take individuals off the Intercession list after four weeks unless more time is requested.

Choral Evensong at St. Mary's THIS AFTERNOON at 4 pm. It is also the end of Daylight Saving Time, so you can turn back your clock for an extra hour of sleep, Saturday night.

The music of three 'powerhouse' composers from three different nationalities will be heard in our choral Evensong for All Saints: Brahms, Bortniansky, and Stanford. St. Mary's Choir plus 'choral friends' will sing 'Cherubim Hymn' by Russian composer Dimitry Bortniansky, the lyric and moving chorus "How lovely is Thy dwelling place" from Johannes Brahms' 'German Requiem', and early 20th century English composer Charles V. Stanford's setting of the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis. These latter two canticles feature soprano and bass solos with the chorus, and an organ accompaniment that Dr. Turk described as a "spinning wheel" accompaniment.

The term "Evensong" comes from the Anglo-Saxon word oefensang. Before the Reformation, it was the English name for the service of Vespers, which was one of eight daily services sung in monasteries and cathedrals. In 1549, Thomas Cranmer, the Archbishop of Canterbury, consolidated the monastic offices into the first Book of Common Prayer, which combined Vespers and Compline into a single service called Evensong. This new service was conducted in English instead of Latin. Evensong is still observed today in many Anglican churches, including the Church of England, the Church in Wales, the Scottish Episcopal Church, and the Church of Ireland. It's also observed in Episcopal churches and Anglican churches in the US and around the world.

Evensong is a time to observe the passing of the day and to temporarily forget worries; a time for meditation and reflection, and a time to 'unwind'. The service is not long and would provide a good experience to share with family and friends, and perhaps introduce friends to St. Mary's.

Election Hospitality Table Did you know St. Mary's is a polling place? To encourage some goodwill and high spirits for those exercising their right to vote on November 5, St. Mary's will once again be hosting a hospitality table with water, coffee, and light snacks. Can you spare an hour (or more) to help welcome people to our campus and pass out refreshments? Hours will be on November 5 between 7am and 8pm. Sign-up sheet is available today, or email Allyson Radford at radford.allyson@gmail.com with your availability.

Monday Morning Bible Study Online via Zoom

11:00am - 12:00pm As the church moves in new directions, this is an ideal time to commit yourself to closer acquaintance with the Bible. We offer a discussion class in which all can participate, or you can just drop in to listen. Come when you can and always be assured of a warm welcome. If you have questions, please feel free to contact Erlis Wickersham at vze27g53@verizon.net.

Adult Formation On Sunday, November 10th Father Conor will continue discussing the virtue ethics of St. Thomas Aquinas. On November 17 and 24th, we will discuss the Eucharist, how we prepare for it, what it means, and how it fosters our spiritual growth. Everyone is cordially invited to join us in the Navajo Room at 9 AM for lively discussion and fellowship. If you have questions, please contact Erlis Wickersham.

Fall Outdoor Clean-Up Day Sunday, November 17, 2024. After church until 4:00pm. Spend your Sunday afternoon helping to tidy and beautify our campus! Calling all volunteers to help rake leaves, prune bushes, remove branches, etc. If you have tools you prefer, bring them - but we will have plenty of supplies. Lunch and snacks provided. Questions: contact Allyson Radford.

Fr. Greene Leaded Glass Restoration Work Has Begun Complete removal and restoration of the rectangular leaded glass windows in the Fr. Greene Room began on Wednesday the 23rd. Temporary wood panels will be in place until the end of November when they are reinstalled. Questions? Contact Tom Kelleher at tommytrain@gmail.com.

St. Mary's Book Club The next meeting of the book club will be on Wednesday, November 12th at 2 PM at Erlis Wickersham's house. We will read First Ladies by Marie Benedict and Victoria Christopher Murray (2019). This is the story of the uplifting friendship between Eleanor Roosevelt and Mary McLeod Bethune, a celebrated African American educator. In December we will read Ernest Hemingway's The Old Man and the Sea. (1952) Our January selection will be Flight of the Swan (2024) by Melissa Pritchard, illuminating little-known aspects of the life of Florence Nightingale. You don't have to read the book. Everyone is welcome to attend for fellowship, delicious refreshments and discussion. If you have questions, please contact Erlis Wickersham.

St. Mary's Fall Food Festival The Women of St. Mary's are hard at work planning wonderful things for the Fall Food Festival to be held on Saturday, November 23rd from 10:00am - 2:00pm. We hope that everyone will join together to make it the best one ever!

Canning or Preparing other Baked Goods

Calling all cooks! As we continue through fruits and veggies harvest season, please get out your favorite jam, jelly, pickle, etc. recipes and prepare treats to be sold at our Fall Food Festival! Contact: Jean Wetzel at claywetz@verizon.net

Noah's Ark will be open during the St. Mary's Fall Food Festival

Our thrift shop will be open Saturday, November 23, from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. All proceeds for that day will go to the Festival, and we are eager to welcome new faces to our store. If you would like to volunteer at the front desk for a one-hour shift, please contact Susan Huck at sbmhuck@aol.com or 484-612-2546. If you have time during the festival, feel free to stop by and help sort donations, straighten racks or shop! Tammy Lohmann and Nina Rebmann will be our store captains for the day.

Buildings & Grounds 2025 Budgeting The process for setting the 2025 Buildings & Grounds Budget is underway! If there are projects or priorities you feel need attention in the coming year, please bring them to the attention of Bob Mickel. You may email Bob at robertmickel27@gmail.com.

Fuel the Community: Donate Breakfast Essentials to St. Mary's Little Free Pantry, St. Mary's Church food pantry is dedicated to combating hunger and nurturing our community. Support us by donating peanut butter, jelly, fruit preserves, almond butter, honey, and jam to make the Autumn Season brighter for all! Please place your contributions in the Little Free Pantry basket in the narthex. Together, we make a brighter morning for all!

Deadlines for eChimes and Bulletin The weekly liturgy bulletins are available online on Fridays and in print on Sundays. The eChimes is distributed on Fridays. To help us meet these deadlines, all announcements, photographs and notices must be submitted to our Parish Administrator, Nicole Marie, by the End of the day on Tuesdays. We appreciate your understanding. Please reach out to Nicole with questions - you may call her at 610-688-1313 (extension 202) or email her at nicole@stmaryswayne.org.
